

Thinking
Listening Questions
Answers

me my hopes for myself is that I become a very good fire fighter and save lots of people and also a police man

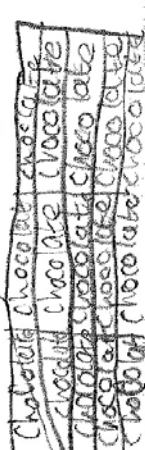

My hopes for the world is that there are no more wars a greener planet and people never fight.

my teacher my teachers hopes for herself is her the children are happy and they achieve their goal her hopes for the world are that all the (countries) are shared all around the world

my mum my mums dream is to have a years supply of chocolate

her dream for the world is no one is killed in any fights

My hopes and dreams
for the world and myself.

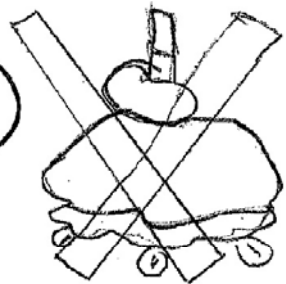

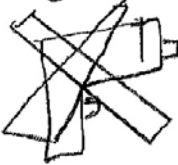

My self:

My dream is to be a professional footballer. Also my dream for the world is for everyone to live in peace.

My Mum:

My dream is to have a good job and my dream for the world is that there should be no more wars in the world.

My dad:

My dream is for my kids to have a good education and good grades. My dream for the world is no more racism in the world.

